Will the device be provided at no charge for the use of a Chromebook?

No. The Chromebook is an educational resource provided by the Hanover School Division. Similar to textbooks and other instructional materials, HSD will supply Chromebooks to students at no cost.

Who owns the Chromebook?

HSD owns the Chromebook at all times. The device and AC charger are loaned to the student for educational use and must be returned upon request.

Does the Chromebook User Agreement require a parent/guardian signature?

Yes. Any student under the age of 18 will require parent/guardian consent in the form of a signed Chromebook 1:1 User Agreement. This agreement indicates responsibilities, limitations, and liabilities for device usage.

Can a parent/guardian opt-out of their child's participation in Chromebook 1:1?

Yes. Although we highly recommend that all parents/guardians agree to their child's participation in Chromebook 1:1. Without a Chromebook, the student may not have after-school access to classwork or collaboration opportunities in the same way other students do. Each school will have a limited amount of Chromebooks available for use (sign-out) during school hours. If an opt-out is preferred, please contact the school principal to discuss further.

Will any information be stored on the Chromebook?

No. Data is not stored locally on a Chromebook. If the device is lost, there is no concern regarding personal data.

Will Chromebooks be used in class?
